TAMPA, FL August 15, 2018 -- Saltmarsh, Cleaveland & Gund, one of the largest CPA-led consulting firms in the Southeast, has been recognized as one of the nation's Top 200 accounting firms according to INSIDE Public Accounting (IPA).

The list is comprised of accounting firms ranging in size from the multi-billion-dollar Big 4 to firms of roughly $10 million in net revenue. The rankings are compiled using data gathered from IPA's Annual Survey and Analysis of Firms, which received over 600 responses.

"With our 75th anniversary approaching, we are proud that our firm has grown to become one of the nation's top accounting firms. This recognition validates our commitment to providing quality service, investing in our people for sustainable growth, and upholding our shared vision and guiding principles," said President Lee Bell. "Our success is driven by our dedicated professionals, loyal clients and communities."

In light of the evolving landscape in the accounting industry, Mike Platt, principal with IPA, stated: "CPA firms continue their expansion into services that are not traditionally associated with accounting firms - wealth management, cybersecurity, [and] client marketing assistance..."
