Individual Tax Engagement Letter

Dear Client:

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide.

We will prepare your 2019 federal income tax return, and if applicable, state returns (collectively, the “returns”). This engagement pertains only to the 2019 tax year, and our responsibilities do not include preparation of any other tax returns that may be due to any taxing authority. Our engagement will be complete upon the delivery of the completed returns to you. Thereafter, you will be solely responsible to file the returns with the appropriate taxing authorities.

Your returns may be selected for review by one or more than one taxing authority. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon your written request to represent you during the examination and/or during any appeal. Any such representation will be the subject of, and governed by, a separate engagement letter.

We will prepare the returns from information which you will furnish to us. It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. We will furnish you with questionnaires and/or worksheets as needed to guide you in gathering the necessary information. Your use of such forms will assist us in keeping our fee to a minimum. To the extent we render any accounting and/or bookkeeping assistance, it will be limited to those tasks we deem necessary for preparation of the returns.

The timeliness of your cooperation is essential to our ability to complete this engagement. Specifically, we must receive sufficient information from which to prepare your returns within a reasonable period of time prior to the applicable filing deadline. Accordingly, if we do not receive information from you, as noted above, by March 26, 2020, it may be necessary for us to pursue an extension of the due date of your returns, and we reserve the right to suspend our services or withdraw from this engagement.

If an extension of time is required, any tax that may be due with the return must be paid by the original filing deadline. Any amounts not paid by the filing deadline may be subject to interest and late payment penalties.

We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit. Accordingly, our engagement cannot be relied upon to disclose errors, fraud, or other illegal acts that may exist. However, it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information you provide, and we will inform you of any material errors, fraud or other illegal acts that come to our attention.

You are responsible for maintaining an adequate and efficient accounting system, for safeguarding assets, for authorizing transactions, and for retaining supporting documentation for those transactions, all of which will, among other things, help assure the preparation of proper returns. It is important for you to recognize that you have the final responsibility for the accuracy of your income tax returns. As such, we recommend that you review them carefully before you sign and file them. The law provides various penalties and interest that may be imposed when taxpayers underestimate their tax liability. You acknowledge that any such understated tax, and any imposed interest and penalties, are your responsibility, and that we have no responsibility in that regard.

Newly formed I.R.S. Code section 199A may be applicable to your tax filings for 2019. We will provide guidance as best we can based on our interpretation of this code section. Many unanswered questions have arisen in the tax profession and the I.R.S. in many cases has yet to provide authoritative guidance. Further, the planning possibilities embedded in this code section may provide unintended results in other facets of tax planning such as pension, F.I.C.A tax, reasonable and unreasonable compensation, entity selection, etc.... By executing this engagement letter you are asserting that you are aware of the difficulties in tax planning created by this newly formed code section and waive any liability against our firm for either failing to contact us prior to December 31, 2019 and or subsequent authoritative guidance by the tax courts, I.R.S, and other agencies that may affect tax planning and preparation for 2019.

We may encounter instances where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. In those instances, we will outline for you each of the reasonable alternative courses of action, including the risks and consequences of each such alternative. In the end, we will adopt, on your behalf, the alternative that you select after having considered the information provided by us.

Without disclosure in the return itself of the specific position taken on a given issue, we must have a reasonable belief that it is more likely than not that the position will be held to be the correct position upon examination by taxing authorities. If we do not have that reasonable belief, we must be satisfied that there is at least a reasonable basis for the position, and in such a case the position must be formally disclosed on Form 8275 or 8275-R, which form would be filed as part of the return. If we do not believe there is a reasonable basis for the position, either the position cannot be taken, or we cannot sign the return. In order for us to make these determinations, we must rely on the accuracy and completeness of the relevant information you provide to us, and, in the event we and/or you are assessed penalties due to our reliance on inaccurate, incomplete, or misleading information you supplied to us (with or without your knowledge or intent), you will indemnify us, defend us and hold us harmless as to those penalties.

Please be advised that any person having a financial interest in or signature or other authority over bank accounts, securities, or other financial accounts having a value exceeding $10,000 in a foreign country is required by law to report such a relationship. Filing requirements also apply to taxpayers that have direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign accounts. Failure to disclose the required information to the U.S. Department of the Treasury may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties.

If you and/or your entity have a financial interest in any foreign accounts or foreign assets, you are responsible for providing our firm with all the information necessary to prepare the FinCEN Report 114 required by the U.S. Department of the Treasury and any other foreign forms that are required to be included with your Form 1040.

In addition, the Internal Revenue Service under IRC Section 6038(a) requires information reporting with respect to certain foreign corporations (Form 5471) and describes the information required to be reported on these forms, which are due when your income tax return is due, including extensions. Therefore, if you are an officer, director, or shareholder in a foreign entity, you may be required to file one of these forms. IRC Section 6038(b)(1) provides for a monetary penalty of $10,000 for each form that is filed after the due date of the income tax return (including extensions) or that does not include complete and accurate information as defined under the regulations. By submitting your tax information, you accept responsibility for informing us if you are an officer, director, or shareholder in a foreign corporation, and you agree to provide us with the information necessary to prepare the appropriate Form 5471.

Our fees for these services are generally based on the amount of time required to complete the engagement at our standard billing rates, plus technology charges and other out-of-pocket expenses. However, we will also consider the complexity and the value of the work performed, the experience level of the staff required to bring the appropriate level of expertise to the project, and the circumstances under which the work is performed; as a result, actual charges may be greater or lesser than our standard rates. In no event will we charge a fee which we do not consider reasonable under the circumstances. All invoices are due and payable upon receipt.

If we elect to terminate our services for nonpayment, or for any other reason provided for in this letter, our engagement will be deemed to have been completed upon written notification of termination, even if we have not completed your return. You will be obligated to compensate us for all time expended, and to reimburse us for all of our out-of-pocket costs, through the date of termination.

It is our policy to retain engagement documentation for a period of seven years, after which time we will commence the process of destroying the contents of our engagement files. To the extent we accumulate any of your original records during the engagement, those documents will be returned to you promptly upon completion of the engagement. The balance of our engagement file, other than a copy of your income tax return, which we will provide to you at the conclusion of the engagement, is our property, and we will provide copies of such documents at our discretion if compensated for any time and costs associated with the effort.

In connection with this engagement, we may communicate with you or others via email transmission. As emails can be intercepted and read, disclosed, or otherwise used or communicated by an unintended third party, or may not be delivered to each of the parties to whom they are directed and only to such parties, we cannot guarantee or warrant that emails from us will be properly delivered and read only by the addressee. Therefore, we specifically disclaim and waive any liability or responsibility whatsoever for interception or unintentional disclosure of emails transmitted by us in connection with the performance of this engagement. In that regard, you agree that we shall have no liability for any loss or damage to any person or entity resulting from the use of email transmissions, including any consequential, incidental, direct, indirect, or special damages, such as loss of revenues or anticipated profits, or disclosure or communication of confidential or proprietary information.

In the event we are required to respond to a subpoena, court order or other legal process for the production of documents and/or testimony relative to information we obtained and/or prepared during the course of this engagement, you agree to compensate us at our hourly rates, as set forth above, for the time we expend in connection with such response, and to reimburse us for all of our out-of-pocket costs incurred in that regard.

In the event that we are or may be obligated to pay any cost, settlement, judgment, fine, penalty, or similar award or sanction as a result of a claim, investigation, or other proceeding instituted by any third party, and if such obligation is or may be a direct or indirect result of any inaccurate, incomplete, or misleading information that you provide to us during the course of this engagement (with or without your knowledge or intent), you agree to indemnify us, defend us, and hold us harmless as against such obligation.

You agree that any dispute (other than our efforts to collect an outstanding invoice) that may arise regarding the meaning, performance or enforcement of this engagement or any prior engagement that we have performed for you, will, prior to resorting to litigation, be submitted to mediation, and that the parties will engage in the mediation process in good faith once a written request to mediate has been given by any party to the engagement. The results of any such mediation shall be binding only upon agreement of each party to be bound. The costs of any mediation proceeding shall be shared equally by the participating parties.

In the event of litigation brought against us, any judgment you obtain shall be limited in amount, and shall not exceed the amount of the fee charged by us, and paid by you, for the services set forth in this engagement letter. In the event litigation is unsuccessful, you will be responsible for the fees incurred by our firm.

This engagement letter is contractual in nature and includes all of the relevant terms that will govern the engagement for which it has been prepared. The terms of this letter supersede any prior oral or written representations or commitments by or between the parties. Any material changes or additions to the terms set forth in this letter will only become effective if evidenced by a written amendment to this letter, signed by all of the parties.

If, after full consideration and consultation with counsel if so desired, you agree to authorize us to prepare your personal income tax returns pursuant to the terms set forth above, please execute this letter on the line designated for your signature, and return the original of this executed letter to this office along with a completed copy of the enclosed tax organizer and the supporting documentation requested therein. You should keep a copy of this fully executed letter for your records. If this firm does not receive from you the original of this letter, in fully executed form, but receives from you a completed copy of the enclosed tax organizer and/or supporting documentation requested therein, then such receipt by this office shall be deemed to evidence your acceptance of all of the terms set forth above. If, however, this office receives from you no response to this letter, then this office will not proceed to provide you with any professional services and will not prepare your income tax returns.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and please contact us with any questions that you may have.
Very truly yours,

Saltmarsh, Cleaveland & Gund

Electronic Filing

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. The IRS has implemented an electronic filing mandate requiring certain preparers, including this firm, to file all returns that they prepare electronically. Some states also require certain preparers to electronically file state returns prepared. The IRS and some states allow taxpayers to elect not to file their returns electronically.

Do not electronically file the federal return .....

Do not electronically file the state return(s) .....

Note: The IRS and some states that require returns to be electronically filed also impose fees and/or penalties for failure to do so. If you checked either of the boxes above, you may be required to sign an "opt-out" form before we can release your returns. As a follow-up we will contact you to discuss these requirements and your ability to "opt-out" of electronic filing.

The IRS requires, and many states allow, the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) in lieu of mailing a signature document when electronically filing.

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. Electronic filing is the only filing method that provides you with acknowledgment that the IRS has received your return and is processing it. If you are to receive a refund and use direct deposit with electronic filing, you will normally receive your refund in about 3 weeks.

Note that not all returns qualify for electronic filing under IRS rules.

Gifts Made Outright to an Individual

NOTE: Only complete Forms 34 and/or 35 if in 2019:

- You made gifts of cash or marketable securities to an individual that exceeded $15,000; or
- You made gifts of hard-to-value assets (such as closely-held stock) to an individual of any amount; or
- You made any transfers to a trust (including paying premiums on a life insurance policy that was transferred to a life insurance trust).

You should include all gifts made to each individual during the year, including gifts for his or her birthday, holiday, anniversary, graduation, etc. In addition, include any gifts you made for educational or medical expenses. You can exclude amounts paid directly to a qualifying educational organization for tuition. You can also exclude amounts paid directly to health care providers if the expenses relate to nonelective medical expenses.

If you made any loans with an interest rate below the market rate of interest, provide details below.

If your most recent gift tax return was not prepared by us, include a copy.

For gifts other than cash, include a copy of any appraisal(s) of assets.

If no appraisal is available, describe how the value was determined.

For each gift made outright to an individual during the year, provide the following information:
